Al-Hazard II

II アルハザード

I have a home to return to now.
I also wanted to see Vivio.
Really?
It's been a while since I last slept in our own bed, so I slept really well.
Thanks

Through her own will, she has obtained a warm home and family.
Her important family, Nanoha and Vivio.
Her sweet happy days.

She wanted to help sad people, like her mother, before they committed any sins.
With that in her mind, she began her duty.
She obtained friends and status.
She was supposed to be happy, yet her old wound still remained.
"She couldn't save her mother back then."

Al-Hazard I

A young girl appeared before Fate.
She looked just like her mother, Precia.

A Lost Logia was stolen from the Administration [illegible].
The culprit was a clone who looked like Precia.
The clone was the sole successful example of Project F.
She demanded an exchange: the Lost Logia for Fate.
In an attempt to turn the tables, Fate was ordered to use the chance to pinpoint Precia's hideout.

In order to clear her doubts, she went to meet Vivio, her [illegible]. However....

Hey, Nanoha.
You look really happy today.
Did something happen?

Yeah.
Fate-chan is off duty tomorrow, so I'm looking forward to it.
The scary instructor turned all soft and fluffy, huh?

Fate-chan's face keeps popping into my mind while I'm thinking about how I want to make some delicious food for her, or where we should go together...

How do you do? You must be Vivio's mother.
My name is Precia.
Damn!! The barrier... is being formed already.

Mama?
Your... classmate?
Eh? Ah... Right...
Hehehe, pleased to meet you.
There are too many hostages

Yup, this is Precia-chan.
She's really smart!

That's not true...
It is!
Even the teachers couldn't keep up with her.
Is... that so...
I need to find an opening and get out of here.
Heheh.
Ahaha.
AHAHAHAHAHAHAH
A greeting alone won't be enough, right?
I wanted to take root a little deeper, but this is fine.
You're still quite perceptive despite being spoiled from living in peaceful times.

Playtime's over.
Vivio!
Girls! Are you okay?!
The fun
is about to begin!
Ugh!
Eh!?

What cute little puppets!
I just tampered with their minds a little bit.
Now, they'll listen to whatever I say.
He-hehe.
What did you do to them?!

A failed crea-tion...
Repeated use of it will degrade their mental functions.
The only problem is...

You...
She won't be complete without you.
I have no desire to hurt my daughter's body. Now, be obedient.
You haven't changed,
Mother...
Do you think that a resurrected Alicia... would really be happy...
with you playing around with people's lives?!
If I were in her position, I wouldn't want that!!
I don't want you to use your power...
just for your own sake!

I don't want you to sin anymore, Mother!
Silence.
I'll listen to your pointless words after you've become Alicia.
When you are ready to relinquish your body, sometime between today and tomorrow.... Open the lid of that false tombstone.
If those children... can make it by then...

I'll tell you the way to return them to normal.
Choose wisely.
That is, if you don't wish to experience the same suffering as me.

This is the first time I've seen this type of illness.
The cerebellum - the unreachable part of it - is implanted with something.
We are currently transmitting a jamming signal to suppress the pseudo-synaptic transmission process.
It was probably created by some magic technology.
They could get ordered to commit crimes or hurt people.. And, given a worst case scenario..
We have to protect them from orders to take their own lives.

Don't take everything out on yourself.
Let's deal with this together.
It'll be all right.
At times like this, we have to...
They were involved because of me!
give it all we've got!!
Yes...
We are parents after all.
We can do anything!
Stop this!!!

Including Nanoha.
Every-thing that Alicia should have had...
All your happi-ness...
Right?
..... Ugh.
You must give all of it to her.
Status, fame, dependable friends, and family.
I won't let her touch Nanoha
ガシッ

F-Fate-chan?!
What's wrong?

Be quiet.

Wh-Wait,
not... here....

"Not here"?
That's not the problem, Nanoha.
Eh?
The problem is doing it now.
Even though... it's my fault.
No!
Nanoha, I want you.... because I'm broken.

Fate...
That's why, Nanoha...
You can look down on me all you want...
Ah!
-chan...
Th-This isn't...
how you make up... for it.
It's because...
That's not...
Hehe
But your body is saying something different, Nanoha.
If you let out a loud voice, people will come, you know?
Ah.

You're really wet. It's a good thing we're in the bathroom, huh?
Th-
The person I love is touching me, of course I am.
However...
Fate-chan, you're hiding something, aren't you?
You've been saying things... trying to cover it up
No... I'm not.
You give me too much credit.
It feels like... I'm going mad.
Just imagining a world without Nanoha...
Eh?

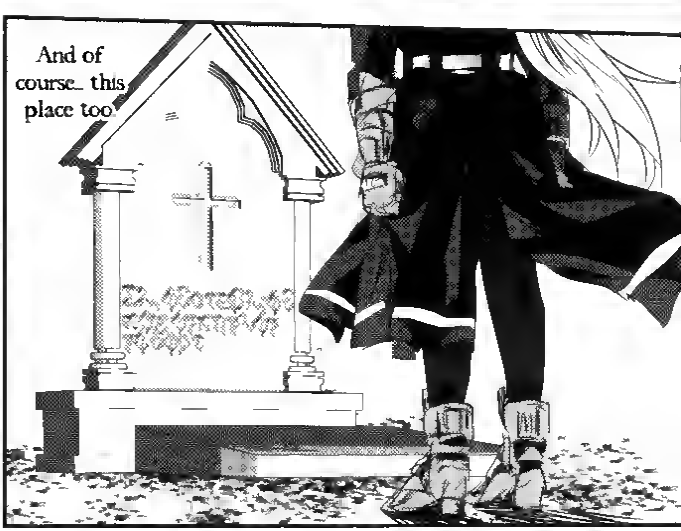
Fa... Fate-chan?
Uhm?
don't forget about me....
Please...
I love you.
I can't live without you.
Yet.. all I can do... is say I love you.

It's like you're saying... everything is a lie.
Please don't say something like that!
I'm sorry, Nanoha.
You're right.
I love you.

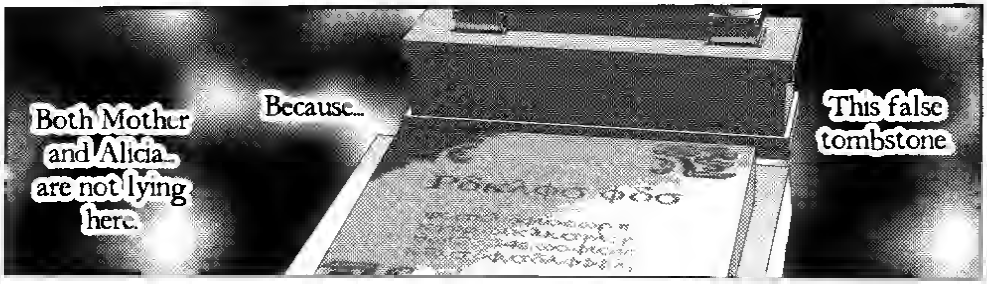
Bardiche.

Goodbye.

She must have been investigating me...
Mother... No, that girl knows even things that weren't in Mother's memories.
From the Administration Bureau to Vivio.



And of course... this place too.



Both Mother and Alicia... are not lying here.
Because...
This false tombstone is just beyond here!!

I'm sure...
That girl...
Let's go, Bardiche!
Yes, sir
To be continued

Afterword

Thank you for picking up this book

It's been about a year since I last participated in a Nanoha event

The plan was to have the new book be in color... or maybe not anymore. Please think of the prequel of this book as the colored opening pages ^0^

There will be lots of action(battle) scenes in the sequel, but... Am I going to be okay? I-I think I will devote myself more to it, SO I CAN DRAW BETTER AND MAKE THEM LOOK COOL!

Corona-chan's shirt is short-sleeved, and Nanoha-chan's undershirt is gone, because that's how I like it I left it the way it is even though I had some time left before the deadline. I corrected all the other mistakes, though
